

The British Chamber of Commerce in Lithuania, the British Embassy and the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award have the pleasure of inviting you to attend a 'Speaker's' event with

Mr John May, Secretary General of The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award and hear an inspiring speech

"Ready, Willing and Able: Preparing the Next Generation of Global Business Leaders"

In his speech Mr May will provide an insight into how business can help empower young people to develop essential life skills and to build up the confidence to become active citizens, ready to contribute positively to their communities and the wider world.

When: May 21st, 6.00 pm

Where: British Ambassador's Residence (Gaigalų str. 4)

Participation is free of charge and open for BCC members only and guests of the British Embassy by separate invitation.

Registration is necessary and will be accepted no later than 19th May via e-mail: Sandra@bcc.lt number of places is limited.

John May

John May is the Secretary General of the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Foundation, which co-ordinates and develops the Award worldwide.

John is a former non-executive director of UNICEF, helped to found 'Teach First' in the UK, and is currently Vice Chairman of the World Organization of the Scout Movement. John writes, speaks and broadcasts on a number of education related matters.

In 2008, John received The Queen's Award for Enterprise Promotion in recognition of his long-standing dedication to enterprise education. In 2009, he received the Freedom of the City of London.

Programme

6.00 pm – Arrival, welcome drink;

6.20 pm – Welcome and introduction by David Hunt, British Ambassador;

6.30 pm – Speech by John May, Secretary General, The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award followed by questions and answers from the audience;

7.30 pm – Reception